A Heavy Load to Carry.

Along with dyspepsia comes nervousness and general ill-health. Why? Because a disordered stomach does not permit the food to be properly digested, and its products assimilated by the system. The blood is charged with poisons which come from this disordered digestion, and in turn the nerves are not fed on good, red blood, and we see symptoms of nervousness, sleeplessness and general breakdown. It is not head work, nor over physical exertion that does it, but poor stomach work. With poor, thin blood the body is not protected against the attack of germs of grip, bronchitis and consumption. Fortify the body at once with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—a rare combination of native medicinal roots without a particle of alcohol or dangerous habit-forming drugs.

A little book of extracts, from prominent medical authorities extolling every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will be mailed free to any address on request by postal card or letter. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Many years of active practice convinced Dr. Pierce of the value of many native roots as medicinal agents and he went to great expense, both in time and in money, to perfect his own peculiar processes for rendering them both efficient and safe for tonic, alterative and rebuilding agents.

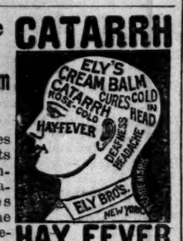

The enormous popularity of "Golden Medical Discovery" is due both to its scientific compounding and to the actual medicinal value of its ingredients. The publication of the names of the ingredients on the wrapper of every bottle sold, gives full assurance of its non-alcoholic character and removes all objection to the use of an unknown or secret remedy. It is not a patent medicine nor a secret one either. This fact puts it in a class all by itself, bearing as it does upon every bottle wrapper The Badge of Honesty, in the full list of its ingredients.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" cures, weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver and biliousness, ulceration of stomach and bowles and all catarrhal affections no matter what parts or organs may be affected with it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original little liver pills, first put up 40 years ago. They regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Much imitated but never equaled. Sugar-coated and easy to take as candy. One to three a dose.

RIOTOUS CHAUFFEURS.

Police reserves were called out late yesterday afternoon in New York to quell a riot started by the striking chauffeurs of the New York Transportation Company. The first trouble began at Thirty-sixth street and Eighth avenue, when a motor car belonging to the company, driven by Arnold Bien, reached that corner, and before long 500 chauffeurs and 100 police were involved.

The police declare that the trouble was started by a young woman, who urged the crowd standing on the street to break up the police protection of a passing automobile belonging to the New York Transportation Company.

"Will you stand this? Go at them like men!" the woman is said to have shouted. Instantly the cry was raised. "Down with the strike breakers. Kill the police if they interfere." The crowd surroundered the automobile and the driver jumped from his seat and disappeared. A second New York Transportation Company machine appeared on the scene about the same time and the mob turned its attention to this also. Stones, sticks and eggs were thrown from every direction. In a short time reserves from two police stations reached the scene.

The strikers had caused a large coal wagon to be placed diagonally across the street, and when the automobile reached that point a crowd of several hundred men surrounded the car, pulled the chauffeur from the seat, completely wrecked the car and filled the air with stones and other missiles.

Two special officers on bicycles in the employ of the transportation company drew their revolvers and drove off the mob. The reserves from the Thirty-seventh street police station appeared on the scene, but this only seemed to make the mob more desperate and the police were charged up.

A roundsman was struck in the eye with a stone and was so badly injured that he was carried away. Five other policemen were hurt by flying missiles. The police then charged the mob and chased the strikers to Thirty-fifth street. A new automobile arrived to take the wrecked machine back to the garage. The two machines started in tow down Thirty-sixth street to Seventh avenue, where a crowd of 5,000 men and boys were congregated.

All the way from Thirty-eighth street to Forty-third street and Broadway the chauffeurs and machines were pelted by stones. When the machines turned the corner to go up Eighth avenue a delivery wagon, purposely drawn across the street, blocked their progress. The strikers again stopped the machines, jerked the chauffeurs from the machines and beat them unmercifully.

Reserves from the Forty-seventh street station arrived and began to club back the infuriated strikers. The mob scattered and the automobiles started up Eighth avenue again.

When they reached Forty-third street one of the mob threw a stone at one of the chauffeurs, knocking him to the ground. Deputies from the company's garage with drawn revolvers held the crowd back. The reserves were called again. They clubbed right and left and two strikers were arrested. Finally, under the protection of the police, the automobiles were taken back to the stables by another chauffeur amid the hoots and cries of the drivers of every vehicle they passed.

"Devil's Confession."

A young man approached Policeman Hopkins, who was standing on the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Third street, Washington, yesterday morning, and asked the officer the way to the White House. In response to a query from the officer whether he was a stranger or not, the young man replied: "My name is James Nathaniel Edmund Combs and I am from Great Mills, St. Mary's county, Md. I want to see the President to show him the devil's confession."

Officer Hopkins told the young man to come with him, but instead of taking him to the White House he took him to police headquarters and introduced him to the sanitary office. Young Combs, on being questioned, said that the Lord appeared to him and told him of the confession made by the devil. Combs stated that he had labored for about a year in writing out the confession, and the great wad of paper he exhibited convinced the sanitary officer that the young man had spent many months on the work. The police surgeons examined the young man and pronounced him harmless, but suggested that he return home. Young Combs concluded, after all, prehaps the President would destroy the manuscript if he read it, and therefore he took the boat for home yesterday afternoon.

Protest Against Absorption.

The first gun in what promises to be a fight waged by the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Alabama against the effort that is being made by a large number of those formerly in that church to have it absorbed by the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America was sounded yesterday at the session of the Cumberland Presbyterian Synod of Alabama, in session at East Lake.

A resolution was passed calling upon all congregations of the Cumberland Church to employ none but Cumberland Presbyterian ministers and to ask the resignation of all pastors who may have agreed to the union of the churches. It was also resolved to make demand upon Rev. W. B. Witherspoon, former stated clerk of the Synod, for the money, books, records, etc., which it is claimed are the property of the Cumberland Church.

Yesterday's action follows the split which occurred two nights ago when the members of the two churches met in Birmingham with a view to holding a joint synodical convention.

VANITY

From time immemorial moralists have railed at the vanity of woman. Here is a woman, and a beautiful one at that, who says that vanity is an imperishable instinct; that vanity, like love, is one of the great forces that makes the world go round; that to be vain is a duty to humanity and an essential of success.

It's an original view; what is your opinion? This defense of an old time sin is set forth in our new magazine—

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 2, 1906.

HON. JOHN F RIXEY, who is again to succeed himself as Representative from the Eighth Congressional district of Virginia, has sent out circulars to his many constituents. Although Mr. Rixey has no opposition, he realizes, as do all earnest democrats, that a large party vote should be polled throughout the Old Dominion as the standing protest of Virginians against the prevailing order of things incident to the continuance in power of a republican administration. Mr. Rixey in his circular refers to the political issues that are now before the people of this country. In regard to his inability to make a thorough canvass of the district, as he has heretofore done, as well as the impossibility of seeing each individual member of the party, he says:

About the time that the last session of Congress adjourned I was informed that, as a precautionary measure, I needed a temporary change of climate and medical treatment of my throat, and was advised to go to Colorado for that purpose. I have been detained on the advice of my physician so long that It will be unable to make the personal canvass of the district which I should like to make, and which it was my full purpose and expectation to make when I received at the hands of the democratic party of the Eighth Congressional district of Virginia the unanimous nomination as their Representative in the next Congress Under these circumstances I feel that it is due myself, as well as a generous constituency, that I make to them the above explanation, and I deem it not inappropriate to make at the same time the personal request of each of my friends and all loyal democrats to come out to the election on November 6th next, and see to it that the full democratic vote is polled. This is the only absolute guarantee of success and victory. I am advised that the republicans hope to make gains by a private canvass, but I trust the democrats will be upon their guard and not permit this.

NOTWITHSTANDING the statement of the Superintendent of the Penitentiary to the effect that the new law which provides the jail prisoners, may be worked on the roads is working well, it is said that many of the sheriffs and sergeants of the cities and counties are averse to the law, as it takes the men away from the jails and reduces the revenues of the jailers for the keep and care of the prisoners. State officers who stand in the way of State laws should be displaced as soon as possible.

RENEWED complaints are made that inferior coffee is shipped under false bills of lading to Porto Rico for the purpose of being exported thence as the product of the island. This is a fraud on the producers and upon the buyers of the coffee. There is no excuse for shipping any coffee to the island. Whatever goes there is presumptively designed to defraud. The presumption is strengthened by the fact that it is entered on manifests as peas and beans. Adequate means should be taken to protect Porto Rico from the destruction of its business.

THE GAZETTE is not a particular admirer of Mr. Hearst, but it must admit that the intemperate speech against that candidate made in Utica, N. Y., last night by Secretary of State Root, by and with the authority of President Roosevelt, will do Mr. Hearst more good than harm. Abuse is no argument, and many voters will resent the coercive measures which the administration is resorting to in New York politics.

A GEOGRAPHICAL SURVEY bulletin has just been issued, representing the combined work of the Land Office, Census Bureau and Survey, in determining what constitutes the "area of the United States." The result is 3,026,789 square miles. The area of Alaska is given as 590,884; the Philippines, 115,026; Hawaii, 6,449; Porto Rica, 3,435; Guam, 210; Samoa, 77, and the Panama canal strip, 474 square miles. All the detached territory is subject to change as the limits become more closely defined.

From Washington.

Washington, Nov. 2.

Government employes in Washington are being urged to go home and vote. No one commands them to vote the republican ticket, of course, but considering the inducements offered by some of the departmental bureau chiefs, all are expected to vote for the administration. The usual offers made to induce the government's hired men to vote this fall shows the extraordinary interest the administration is taking in the struggle. As a sample of the offers made by some branches of the service Public Printer Stillings' circular might be quoted. In this he announces that employes of his department who wish to go home to vote "will be given the necessary time for that purpose." The circular winds up with the following alluring paragraphs: "The Public Printer desires it distinctly understood that the condition of the work in this office is such that a very large proportion of the force can be spared from the first to the fifteenth of November, more or less. Employes desiring to avail themselves of this opportunity may be paid the amounts due them before leaving, by applying immediately for leave."

The Navy Department is having considerable difficulty in obtaining a satisfactory trial of the new armored cruiser California, built on the Pacific coast. It is said that the trouble is due to unfortunate circumstances brought about by over-heated bearings or loose screws. The department has informed the contractor that no further trials will be given the California until the naval inspector has received positive assurances that the machinery is in such condition as to permit a satisfactory test of the vessel.

Brigadier General Thomas H. Barry, acting Chief of Staff of the army, leaves this city today for Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., where he will join Secretary Taft for a tour of inspection to some of the larger army posts at which it is intended to establish brigades of troops for permanent station. At Fort Sill it is the intention to establish a big brigade post for field artillery.

Although no official report has yet been received in Washington relative to the arrest of a Japanese officer for sketching fortifications in Manila, officials of the War and State Departments were not greatly surprised when informed of the fact. It has been suspected for some time that the military information division of the general staff of the Japanese army has had scouts at work secretly, not only in the Philippines but in continental United States as well.

Harriette G. Southworth has been appointed postmistress at Sperryville, Rappahannock county, Va., vice Mamie M. Schwartz resigned.

A telegram from Senator Dubois, of Idaho, was received at the headquarters of the democratic congressional committee this morning which the Senator says: "The only issue discussed by either party in this campaign in Idaho has been the Mormon menace. The democratic party pledges the party that it will suppress polygamy."

Caught Sketching Forts.

Manila, Nov. 2.—A young Japanese officer, a captain of engineers in the Mikado's army, was caught today while in disguise, as he was engaged in sketching certain of the fortifications of Manila harbor. He was promptly placed under arrest and steps will be taken to have him deported immediately. A search of the young officer's effects brought to light several well executed sketches of forts in the islands, on which were annotations showing the number of guns, distribution of soldiers stationed in each fort, and general comments on the effectiveness of the defences.

Steps were immediately taken by the military authorities when they received word of the arrest to see that none of the officer's drawings shall get out of the island, if they have not already been sent.

In military and government circles the arrest has caused a great sensation especially in view of the agitation now in progress in Japan against the United States because of the discrimination shown in the Japanese school children in San Francisco. It is not regarded as likely that other action will be attempted here, except to deport the offending officer. Washington will be communicated with and it is expected here that diplomatic steps will be taken at once to question the Japanese government as to the meaning of such an unfriendly act.

A Daring Rescue.

New York Nov. 2.—Kneeling in prayer, with the flames from the burning building on the roof of which they had taken refuge, from the fire, scorching their clothing, two men today were snatched from death by firemen who climbed an extension ladder up seven stories, which was enveloped in flames most of the way. The building, located on Stanton street, was used as a furniture factory by Ludwig Hodikow. There were but two men in the building when the fire started. They were asleep on the fourth floor and when they awoke and ran to the fire escape they found escape below cut off by flames They ran to the roof, and by this time the building was a mass of fire. Their screams for help were heard by the throng below. Firemen tried to go up the stairs, but after several had been carried out overcome by smoke, the extension ladder was thrown against the wall. The flames belching from the windows enveloped the ladder, but Fireman Nestlick went through and handed the men to safety amid the cheers of the mob below. The total loss is estimated at $100,000.

A New Alliance.

Vienna, Nov. 2.—Germany, Austria and Russia may form a new triple alliance, thus necessitating a new adjustment of diplomatic arrangements. The move is contemplated as a result of Italy's evident preparations to leave the alliance now existing between Germany, Austria and Italy, and throw in her lot with France and England. Feelers have already been put out by Austria looking to the formation of such an alliance, the correspondent of the Publishers Press is informed on the best of authority. So far the advances made have been well received and there is every likelihood that this grouping of the powers will ultimately be arranged.

The publication of the story from Rome in these dispatches of Italy demanding recognition of the authority of King Victor Emanuel in Rome by Austria through the visit of some member of the Hapsburg dynasty to Rome as the price of her continuing in the triple alliance has brought out the report of the negotiations for the new arrangement. Austria is not inclined to admit the superiority of the Quirinal over the Vatican in Rome. She is consequently seeking a new alliance to protect herself in case Italy breaks the existing arrangement.

Want Offices.

Havana, Nov. 2.—Application made to Governor Magoon today for the appointment as one the sub-secretaries of Senator Delgado one of the leading negroes of the island outlined their intention to force the provisional government if possible to recognize them as one of the political elements to be reckoned with. The negroes want offices, and they assert they will never drop their agitation until Senator Delgado and General Juan G. Gomez have been given important positions.

Activity of negro leaders in seeking preferment at the hands of the provisional government is deemed by many persons here as evidently menacing and likely to bring the race question to the front in a way to cause serious trouble.

Charles Williams, acting cashier for the Citizens' Bank, of Salem, Ind., committed suicide in the vaults of the bank today. It is said he was temporarily insane because of business troubles. The accounts of the bank are said to be all right.

Otis McCann, a young farmer of McClellandtown, Pa., who on Thursday last was married in Cumberland to Mrs. Nancy Sapper, also of McClellandtown, has disappeared. The marriage caused great surprise because of the great difference in their ages. The bride is sixty-two, while the groom is but thirty. To her friends the bride admitted that she asked Mr. McCann to marry her, thinking in her old age to have some person to care for her large property. At the time of the marriage she gave him a cash present of $5,000.

Efforts to penetrate the mystery that has been thrown around the robbery of Mrs. Columbus Alexander, in Georgetown, and subsequent refusal on the part of the family to permit a police investigation, served only to bring out other strange angles to the case. A statement has been issued by the widow in which she denies she has been robbed by any one "near and trusted," but she fails to explain why the police investigation is being thwarted. The aged invalid is the center of a remarkable contest, and the Alexander factions are in a bitter struggle over a fortune, though living in the same house.

ROOT ATTACKS HEARST.

The brand of "assassin" was placed upon the forehead of William R. Hearst, at Utica, N. Y., last night. In a scathing speech Hon. Elihu Root, Secretary of State in the President's Cabinet, held Mr. Hearst responsible for the death of McKinley. He declared that he spoke by authority of President Roosevelt. This was one of the most sensational of the many climaxes that have punctuated the closing days of the gubernatorial campaign in that State. It was the most relentless denunciation of a public man ever heard. "Is there no one left who loved McKinley?" the speaker asked, after reading extracts from Mr. Hearst's newspapers previous to the assassination, in support of his charges that Hearst urged the shooting at Buffalo. "Are there no workingmen left in New York," he demanded, "who cannot see with satisfaction honors heaped upon the man who is not guiltless of McKinley's death?"

"I say to you, with President Roosevelt's authority," said Mr. Root, "that he regards Mr. Hearst as wholly unfit to be governor, as an insincere, self-seeking demagogue, who is trying to deceive the workingmen of New York by false statements and false promises; and I say to you, with his authority, that he considers that Mr. Hearst's election would be an injury and a discredit alike to honest labor and to honest capital and a serious injury to the work in which he is engaged of enforcing just and equal laws against corporate wrongdoing."

Characterizing Mr. Hearst as a violent and unworthy demagogue, and a persistent officeseeker, Mr. Root declared that as a congressman he had proved a worthless public servant.

These charges, concluding a speech of unusual bitterness, fell with astounding force upon the Secretary's hearers, because of the understanding that it was this portion of his speech that the President had prepared by his own hand, to meet the recent claims of the Hearst managers that their candidate and President Roosevelt entertained the same views upon all public questions. During his speech he said: "It is seldom, indeed, that a man so young, whose public career has been so brief, so small a portion of whose life is known at all to the public, has furnished such convincing proofs of his unfitness for office.

"The public knows the character of Mr. Hearst only by the newspapers he publishes, and God forbid that we should set up in the high station of governor of New York, for the admiration and imitation of our children, the man whose character is reflected in the columns of the New York Journal and the New York American.

"But the worse of Mr. Hearst," said Mr. Root, "is that with his great newspapers, with his army of paid agents, for his own selfish purposes, he has been day by day and year by year sowing the seeds of dissension and strife and hated throughout our land.

"An absolute cipher in Congress."

"Czolgoez had no real or fancied wrongs of his own to avenge against McKinley or McKinley's government; he was answering to the lesson he had learned, that it was a service to mankind to rid the earth of a monster; and the foremost of the teachers of these lessons to him and his kind was, and is William Randolph Hearst and his yellow journals".

"I say, by the President's authority, that in penning these words, with the horror of President McKinley's murder fresh before him, he had Mr. Hearst specifically in his mind."

Skull Crushed by Assailant.

Jacob Armentrout, a young man of the Keezletown neighborhood, Rockingham, county, is in a precarious condition at his father's home as a result of an assault late Tuesday night. Armentrout has been unconscious the greater part of the time, but has given the clew to his alleged assailants.

In his lucid moments he has said that he was on his way home from Harrisonburg when he passed William H. Sheetz and Ike Winn in the road. They ordered him to run, and, upon his refusal to do so, he says that he was struck over the head with a heavy, blunt instrument in the hand of Sheetz. Sheetz and Winn later took him to his father's home, a short distance away.

Armentrout's skull was crushed, and physicians performed an operation to remove blood clots on the brain. Sheetz and Armentrout quarreled some time ago about the shooting of several dogs. There is little hope for the victim's recovery.

After Insurance Companies.

Joseph Button, insurance commissioner, has made public the report of the examiner who recently investigated the affairs of the Farmers' Mutual Protective Association and the American Live Stock Association, two officers of which are under arrest charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. The report says that the two companies have no assets, that the system of bookkeeping is amateurish, that an irregular condition of affairs was found, that both companies are hopelessly insolvent, and their affairs have been grossly mismanaged.

The department has also received an inquiry regarding the Mount Vernon Fire Insurance Company, of Alexandria, which has forfeited its charter for noncompliance with the revenue law.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 2.—The entire market this morning was influenced by election sentiment. The developments over night, followed by widening of the betting of odds 5 to 1, favor of Hughes, started a stampede on the parts of the shorts to cover while at the same time it made holders of long stocks more confident of their propositon and left the market without any supply in sight except at materially high prices. The advances resulting ranged in many stocks from 2 to ove 8 points.

Letter to C. E. Nicol.
Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir: No man is in a position to influence men with regard to their property more than you in that little room where they tell you their troubles. Pity, if you don't know how to keep a house dry and sound, any sort of structure, house store factory warehorse shop barn fence—any sort of fence, except rail; with paint

What paint? The paint that takes least gallons; for paint costs money, and putting it on costs twice as much as the paint

That is short; but that's all; it includes the rest. One paint wears long, another wears short; but the one that wears long is the least gallons paint; least-gallons means pure and strong, and most-gallons means adulterated and weak, besides small gallons.

Paint is one of the biggest interests in the United States; not the business of making it, no, the business of paint, taking care of property. Paint is worth a great deal more than it costs, and the best costs least: Devoe.

Yours truly,

Today's Telegraphic News

New York Politics.

New York, Nov. 2.—That Richard Croker's repudiation of Hearst, first in a cablegram to Senator McCarren congratulating the latter on the stand he has taken towards the democratic and independence league candidate and later in an extended interview given yesterday to the Dublin Freeman's Journal, which was cabled, in which Croker expressed astonishment and disgust at the so-called Hearst-Murphy deal, have hurt Hearst greatly in this city was conceded everywhere today except at Hearst headquarters. It is claimed Hearst will lose thousands of votes as the result of Croker's statement. Regularity has been the basic principles of Tammany Hall since its inception, and Croker was the chief apostle of the creed. Since he has openly abandoned the principle many Tammany men feel no longer bound to stand by Hearst simply because he is the democratic nominee. The old guard of Tammany stands by Croker in preference to Murphy and the former chieftain's repudiation of Hearst, it is predicted, will be the signal for many of Croker's friends to vote against Murphy's candidate. So, many of them who will do so have a double purpose. They want to see Murphy deposed as leader of Tammany Hall, and they think an overwhelming defeat for Hearst will pave the way for this.

An attack on Croker seems to be the method to which the Tammany men will resort. Evidences of this are offered in a statement already made by John T. Oakley, who charges, according to an interview printed in a local paper, that Croker is animated by a desire to protect financial investments in attacking Hearst. Hearst himself ignores the Croker incident and his newspapers make no reference to it. Editorially, the Evening Journal devotes itself today to another attack on Secretary of State Root as the principal contribution to the campaign activity. The speech delivered at Utica last night by Mr. Root is made the basis of the attack. Root, the Evening Journal asserts, endeavored to earn Ryan money in delivering his Utica address by attacking Ryan's enemy, Mr. Hearst.

New York, Nov. 2.—A notable change in the betting on the outcome of the election in New York State in favor of Hughes, occurred today, when odds ranging as high as 5 to 1, were offered against Hearst. On the curb market and even in the lobbies of the Stock Exchange such bets were offered. Wolff Bros. announced shortly after noon that they were commissioned to bet $40,000 against $10,000 on Hughes election. By some the change in the betting was attributed to the effect of Secretary Root's speech at Utica last night, in favor of Hughes. Few if any actual bets were reported however. A prominent banker has announced that he will bet $5,000 even that Hughes will get a plurality of over 100,000.

Dublin, Nov., 2—Richard Croker, former leader of Tammany Hall, came out openly today and advised all democrats who wish to support the party organization to oppose William Randolph Hearst. Senator McCarren, of Brooklyn, who has bolted the Hearst ticket, has set an example in Mr. Croker's opinion which party workers should follow.

Last night Croker gave an extended interview to the Dublin Freeman's Journal, in which he expressed surprise and indignation at the turning over of the Tammany organizations to Hearst. He followed it up today with an even broader statement in which he said: "Everybody in New York State who supports the democratic organization should follow the example of Senator McCarren during the present election."

Mr. Croker was asked to express his opinion on Charles F. Murphy's leadership of Tammany Hall, and say whether he thought it advisable that there should be a change in the management of the organization, but to this he only replied: "I must decline to say whether Tammany ought to have a change of management."

Brutal Murder.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—One of the most brutal murders recorded recently in the history of the city was discovered today when a pedestrian found the body of a man lying in a field quite close to the corner of Burchfield and Murray Avenues. The body was later identified as that of James McMillan, aged 65, manufacturer agent.

His pockets had been rifled and his gold watch was missing as were also several diamonds. Neighbors residing in the vicinity heard an outcry at one o'clock this morning and one saw three men running from the place where the body was found. No attention was given, however. There is as yet no other clue. McMillan's head had been crushed as if by a club.

The Marlboroughs.

London, Nov. 2.—The Dispatch is authority for the statement that King Edward has endeavored to effect a reconciliation between the Marlboroughs but without avail. It is known that months ago the king remonstrated with the Duke of Marlborough for the indifference shown his wife. His words had no effect however on the duke. Since the details of the Marlboroughs' troubles have been published King Edward has made another attempt at reconciliation. Supported by her relatives, however, the duchess has refused to recede from her determination to separate from her husband.

A Denial.

Berlin, Nov. 2.—Official denial is made today that Prince Joachin, of Prussia, cousin of Emperor William, is to marry Marie Sulzer, the concert hall actress, following the revelations from Vienna yesterday of the effort made by the actress to secure a title previous to her union with the prince, by marrying an impecunious Austrian noble, Baron von Liebenberg, with the arrangement that she was to secure a divorce immediately afterward. The fact that the actress who married the baron as a title-seeking resort, has not secured a divorce, it is claimed, will bar the marriage. Since the publication of the story both Prince Joachim and the woman have disappeared.

Fire on the Baltic.

Liverpool, Nov 2.—Fire broke out today on the White Star liner Baltic, at her dock here. The flames made their appearance in the hold of the Baltic, which is filled with cotton. This made it a difficult fire to fight, but it has been confined to that hold. It is believed the damage will not be very heavy.

The fire was in a quantity of cotton which made it difficult to quell. The loss will not be large.

Explosion.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 2.—A terrific explosion that shook every house in the city killed at least one man and injured more than half a dozen others occurred in the yard storehouse of the Cincinnati Southern Railroad shops here at one o'clock this morning. The storehouse was entirely destroyed, the coaling station badly damaged, several cars burned and the windows in the offices and for some blocks around were broken by the force of the explosion. The explosion shook the Chattanooga Times building, as well as many structures in the heart of the city. Every window in the powerhouse of the Chattanooga Electric Company was broken and the city was left in darkness. The dead man is Clark Evans, colored. He was caught under the wreckage. Albert Ensco, night foreman of the yards, had half his head blown off and will die.

The Castellanes.

Paris, Nov. 2—The Castellane divorce will never come to a trial requiring the presence of the countess in the court, according to a statement made by a prominent Frenchman today. The reason is that there will be no necessity for the countess to get a divorce. Death will have relieved her of the obnoxious Boni, it is predicted before the trial is ever called.

If Count Boni can be restrained in no other way from making public the scandals hidden behind his actions it is said there are a number of men ready to give him his quietous on the field of honor. Today half a dozen men are looking for the count, ready to offer insults which demand an answer by sword or pistol under the code of honor, the moment is encountered.

Countess Castellane was in conference today with her counsel, considering whether she would disclose in her suit the names of those women among the foremost in French titled society, who she has so far shielded.

The Mathews-Mulhall Case.

The Mathews-Mulhall hearing was resumed in Washington yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, and most of the day was devoted to taking the testimony of patrolmen who were on duty at the scene of the wreck in which Engineer Murphy met his death.

Among the witnesses examined was Orville W. Loving, who was conductor of the train to which Engineer Murphy's engine was attached. He told how he had found the engineer lying under the stream of boiling water and of the high pressure of the steam, without being able to do anything for him. At the same time he paid a glowing tribute to the efficiency of both Capt. Mathews and Lieut. Mulhall, which, he testified, was displayed in the way they kept back the surging crowd which, he said, would soon have smothered the suffering man. On cross-examination of Mr. Loving, Attorneys Burke and Bendheim got into an angry exchange of words, with the witness, and it was necessary for Chairman Smith to rebuke sharply both witness and attorneys. Mr. Loving, who was very nervous while on the stand, could not remember how long it had taken him to make out his official report of the wreck. This seemed to arouse the ire of the two lawyers, and they asked the witness if he was sure of anything he had testified to. Loving, in turn, became angry, and the altercation ensued.

The hearing was subsequently adjourned until this afternoon when the defendants will be placed upon the stand.

Wright to Hang.

In the Circuit Court for the County at midnight last night the jury in the case of John Wright, colored, indicted for rape upon Miss Mabel Risley, now Mrs. Forrest Gooding, near Luna Park on the night of September 9th, brought in a virdict of guilty as indicted. The jury retired about 11 o'clock last night, and consumed little over an hour in its deliberations. The court room was still filled when the jury filed in, and it was announced they had agreed. The verdict was read amid an impressive silence. Wright received the evil tiding with stolid composure. Before pronouncing sentence, Judge Nicol asked Wright if he had anything to say. He answered he had not. The negro seemed to fail to realize the import of the occasion, maintaining the stolid cast of countenance which has characterized his appearance throughout the trial.

Attorney J. E. Clements for the defense moved the court to set aside the verdict and grant a new trial. This Judge Nicol denied, saying that he was going to dispose of the case at once, whereupon Mr. Clements noted an exception.

The prisoner was then arraigned, replying in answer to the clerk's question that he had nothing to say. Judge Nicol thereupon sentenced him to be hanged December 14, 1906, between the hours of 6 a. m. and 12 noon.

The court granted a stay of execution for forty days in which to allow counsel for the defense to prepare a bill of exceptions for an appeal to the State Supreme Court. Judge Nicol stated that the prisoner had received a fair trial before as intelligent a jury as could be found in Virginia. The case, he said, had received careful, thorough, and conscientious consideration.

The prisoner was then taken back to jail and the crowd dispersed.

The Machinists' Strike.

President James O'Connell, of the International Association of Machinists, went to New York yesterday with some members of the international committee to see the officials of the Southern Railway in reference to the demands of the machinists for higher wages. It was said they had a preliminary conference with Samuel Spencer, of the company. It is known, however, that former Mayor Seth Low is acting as mediator and had a conference with O'Connell and the officers of the company. Mr. Thomas Hulfish, of this city, is one of the representatives of the machinists.

Officials of the Southern Railway company, upon application to the Hustings Court, of Richmond, yesterday morning, secured the appointment of special policemen for the railroad. This action has aroused considerable antagonism in Manchester, where the machinists of the Southern shops are out on strike, and where the Manchester courts had refused to appoint the special officers asked for. The men have authority along the right of way of the Southern, and can make arrests for trespass on any portion of the property of the road.

Earl Burgess Company.

The Earl Burgess Company opens its week engagement at the Opera House Monday evening in the great scenic production "Darkest Russia." This is a play full of startling scenes and thrilling climaxes with a bright line of comedy running throughout the entire play. Other plays to be presented are as follows: "A Daughter of the South," "Queen of the White Slaves," "Confession of a Wife," "Escaped From the Harem," "The Whole Damn Family," "Tracked Around the World," and "Her Fatal Likeness." High class vaudeville will be introduced during the action of the play and between the acts, which are from the Keith-Proctor Circuit, New York. They are the best possible to obtain.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Jerry Gensmer, arrested by Lieutenant Smith charged with assaulting George Desmoye, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

"Chief" Limecoy, arrested by Officers Smith and Bell charged with vagrancy, was held.

Samuel Reynolds, arrested by Officer Garvey charged with conducting business without a license, was dismissed.

Eight white boys, arrested by Officers Henderson and Bell charged with disorderly conduct last Wednesday night, were dismissed.

School Board.

At a regular meeting of the City School Board held last night there were present Capt. Herbert Bryant, chairman and Messrs Thompson, Yates, Ramsay, Thomson, Bradshaw, Caine, Carter and Smoot.

Capt. Herbert Bryant was unanimously re-elected chairman and returned his thanks for the renewed confidence in him thus expressed by the board

Mr. Hubert Snowden was unanimously re-elected clerk.

Mr. Yates stated that during the month only a few minor repairs to the buildings had been found necessary.

A number of bills for supplies and repairs were ordered to be paid.

Mr. Yates in reference to the purchase of school registers thought that the city schools should conform with the registers prepared by the State and stated that he would bring the matter up at the next meeting.

The clerk reported that the superintendent was unable to be present at the meeting but had requested him to state that he had nothing of special interest to communicate to the board.

A communication from T. H. Ficklin, principal of Washington School, was received, notifying the board that he had deposited in bank the sum of $40 38 collected as a nucleus for a library of suitable reference books and asking the board to make an appropriation to procure a book case. The matter was reported to the finance committee.

A communication from the Superintendent of Public Instruction in reference to an educational exhibit at the Jamestown Exhibition was referred to the superintendent and principals of Washington and Lee schools.

Mr. Yates called attention to the method of issuing permits to children to attend the schools and the clerk explained how the work had been done for years past and had been found to be the best that had yet been devised. The matter went over and the board adjourned.

Masonic.

At the meeting last night of Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons, the officers of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, by invitation, conferred the Master Mason's degree upon a candidate The occasion was a happy one, a large number of the members of the two lodges besides several out-of-town Masons being present. During the evening P. D. D. G. M., H. K. Field, on behalf of a number of members of the two lodges, presented a beautiful Past Master's jewel to Past Master W. L. Allen, which the latter accepted in an appropriate response. After the meeting all present repaired to the rooms above where a beautiful banquet was served and greatly enjoyed. W. M., Geo. E. Warfield, of Jackson Lodge, presided and acted as toastmaster, and happy speeches were made by Grand Master Kemper; W. C. Schilley, of Columbia Lodge; D. D. G. M., R. W. Arnold, and W. M., L. Ruben and others.

Mr. Edgar Campbell, of Alexandria, and Miss Mary Latham, of Washington were married at the parsonage of the M. E. Church South at Luray, Va, October 31st at 10:30 a m by Rev. J. P. Stump, formerly of this city.

Mr. John H. Parrott, now of Salem, is in this city today on a visit to his old home.

Mr. Hyme E. Werneke, of Washington, and Miss Katharine B. Heishley were quietly married on Wednesday evening by Rev P. P. Phillips of St Paul's church, at the rectory of that church.

Mr. George A. Nowland, of this city, was the successful competitor on the essay entitled "The Power of the Ballot," published in a New York paper of today.

A Legal Holiday.

The bankers of Alexandria request the Gazette to call attention to the fact that a recent act of the legislature prescribes that all election days shall be regarded as holidays, or rather that all regular election days shall be regarded as such. More specifically, the statute, which went into effect June 13th, provided that the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of each year shall be a legal holiday. Under the new law, all notes dated after June 13, 1906, and falling due on election day, will be payable on the next business day. Those dated prior to June 13, 1906, and falling due on election day, are due and payable on election day.

The Ship Yard.

The machinery of the marine railway which was badly damaged by fire is to be replaced at once, and within a short time it is thought the railway will be in working order and ready to haul out large vessels. The railway itself is to be given an overhauling before it is put in service again. This railway is the only one of its kind in this section on which vessels of large size can be hauled out. The work of erecting the burned building was commenced today.

Unprovoked Attack.

A man living at New Alexandria met a Washingtonian on Royal street, between Duke and Wolfe, last night and, it is said, without any provocation, attacked him. The Washingtonian, although the smaller of the two men, shed his overcoat and in less time than it takes to tell it had rendered his assailant hors de combat.

Accidentally Shot.

Motorman Burke of the electric railway while on a hunting trip yesterday with Mr. Topping was accidentally shot in the head and face by his companion. Mr. Burke returned to this city and entered the Alexandria Hospital where he received surgical assistance.

Struck With a Brick.

James Godfrey while at work on a locomotive in the Southern Railway yard in this city on Wednesday afternoon was attacked by a man whose name is not given. It is alleged that he was struck on the head with a brick. His assailant later left this city for Washington.

Seriously Burned.

John, the four-year-old son of Mr. Walter Cline, was seriously burned in the cellar of his parents' residence, on south Royal street, yesterday. The little boy was playing with a lighted candle when his clothing took fire. He was attended by Dr. Gorman.

Case Dismissed.

Officers Henderson and Bell last night arrested eight white boys charged with disorderly conduct on Hallowe'en night. The youths meet in a club room on King street, and while it was shown that they were on streets where acts of vandalism were committed at different hours Wednesday night, no positive evidence was adduced to show that they were the authors of the same. They were accordingly dismissed by Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning. It is said that some housekeepers have been unable to find blinds taken from their homes on Wednesday night.

Decree Entered.

In the Corporation Court today in the case of Hugh J. Phillips vs. the Jackson-Phillips Brick Co, a decree was entered for the sale of 600,000 bricks.

JEWELRY.

Going Housekeeping?

If so, you can hardly get along without spoons, knives and forks. The silver-plated are without a doubt the most economical in the end. They wear longer, look better and cost very little more than the ordinary kinds. We can even supply silver-plated knives with steel blades.

Your sideboard is hardly complete without a silver set. Silver cake and fruit baskets should also be placed there.

A candelabra with will brighten the table considerably. After the spread has been cleared off a silver fern dish should be placed on the table.

The necessary things in cut-glass are the decanter, the berry bowl and the celery dish. In a great many homes the ice cream is served on cut glass plates.

On your dresser place a traveling alarm clock and a sterling silver or silver-plated toilet set, also a hat and clothes brush.

You will find plenty use of a number of small silver-plated trays. One has always so many trinkets to take care of.

There should be a jewel case on the dresser, if only for appearance sake. Over night it is a good place to keep the watch and Z—K Gold Chain.

The Hospital

Thankful are They Who Escape The Surgeon's Knife

Thousands of surgical operations are performed every year in our great city hospitals upon women afflicted with serious female troubles. Sometimes the operations are successful—oftentimes they are not.

It is safe to say that certainly nine out of ten operations for female troubles might have been wholly avoided.

The most valuable tonic and re-builder of the female organism, the medicine with a record of thousands of cases literally snatched from the operating table, is

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Do not consent to an operation which may mean death until after you have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. Note what it did for Mrs. Paul Oliver, whose letter follows:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was suffering from pains in my side and a serious female trouble. The doctors said to get well I must have an operation performed, but I would not consent to that.

I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and sent for a bottle; the first dose did me good, and after taking the first bottle I could sleep all right and I did not have those pains in my abdomen which I had all the time before. Now I can ride ten miles in a carriage, my color has returned, and I am full of life. I owe all this to the Vegetable Compound.

It has also done wonders for my thirteen-year-old daughter. I will never cease to praise it and recommend it to my friends.

MRS. PAUL OLIVER, St. Martinsville, La.

Thousands of women, residing in every part of the United States, bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills and creates radiant, buoyant female health. For your own sake try it.

FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 2, 1906.

Wife's Terrible Discovery.

To reach her hand out in the pitchy darkness of the early morning for the purpose of awakening her husband, and find that he had been for hours lying beside her in bed cold in death, was the gruesome experience of Mrs. Timothy McLaughlin, of Baltimore, at 4:45 o'clock yesterday morning. Unable to realize that the icy coldness of her husband, who had retired with her in high spirits and apparently good health a few hours before, could be the chill of death, the woman shook the dead man and called him frantically to speak to her. Before she could light the gas in the room the awful truth began to dawn on the almost frantic woman, and as soon as she could see her worst fears were verified. Mr. McLaughlin was perfectly cold, and had evidently been dead for several hours. She had not noticed his unusual stillness during the night, and the discovery of his death came as an awful shock. The deceased was 38 years old. He was operated on for appendicitis four years ago, and had since had some heart affection, but it was not considered serious.

Death of Presbyterian Minister.

Rev. Robert Reid Howison, LL. D., died yesterday morning at his home, Braehead, in Spottsylvania county, near Fredericksburg. He was in his eighty-sixth year. Dr. Howison was a prominent Presbyterian minister. Besides a lawyer he was the author of a history of Virginia, which is considered a standard work; a students' history of the United States and a religious work entitled "God and Creation." Dr. Howison served as a member of the congressional joint commission to consider the subject of the treatment of prisoners of war during the civil war. He was an honorary member of the Columbian Historical Society of the District of Columbia and a member of the Virginia Historical Society. He was one of the spectators who was injured in the State Capitol disaster at Richmond in 1870.

Fortunate Missourians.

"When I was a druggist, at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J. Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong today. One was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold cure and Throat and Lung healer. Guaranteed by E. N. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.
